

AMERICAN LEGION UNITS ATTEND AN ARMISTICE DINNER

30th Anniversary of Signing of Armistice is Observed

AT LANGHORNE C. C.

State and District Officials of Auxiliary Among Guests

LANGHORNE, Nov. 15 — Three state and district officials of the American Legion Auxiliary were guests on Saturday evening at the 22nd annual dinner of American Legion Auxiliary, marking the 30th anniversary of the signing of the Armistice. The dinner-dance was conducted in the Jesse W. Soby Post, No. 148, Legion country club, here.

The guests of honor, introduced by toastmaster Joseph Zolot, past commander of Soby Post, included: Mrs. Lawrence Rothmeyer, of Fleetwood, eastern vice president, American Legion Auxiliaries, Dept. of Penna.; Mrs. Vernon Wynne, Conshohocken, president of Montgomery-Bucks Council, American Legion Auxiliaries; and Mrs. Harlan Everett, Willow Grove, eastern director.

The messages by these and others in attendance were brief, with the main portion of the evening given over to the dinner and dance program, with an orchestra providing music. Welcome was extended by Mrs. Herbert Kniley, president of the local Auxiliary, who then presented the toastmaster to the gathering. The national anthem was sung by Mrs. Theodore Staudenmeyer, Bensalem township, her accompanist being Mrs. Gilbert Bonnell. The blessing was asked by the Rev. Roger Hillis, Parkland, chaplain of Soby Post.

Mrs. Wynne, during her brief address, spoke of the fine showing of Langhorne auxiliary in the work of the bi-county council, Mrs. Everett presented to Mrs. James Tracy, Humesville, immediate past president of the Soby Post Auxiliary, a past-president's pin; and to 9th District Commander Herbert Walker, a miniature to n' s box-car. The two graciously responded to the presentations.

Mrs. Rothmeyer, eastern vice-president, spoke of the program of the Legion Auxiliary and the obligations of the Department of Penna., which she reminded are much heavier than previous. She divided the obligations into five "points" of a star, namely: Membership, rehabilitation, child welfare (a square

Lad Finds Old Map of N. J.; Shows Bucks Co.

A 13-year-old Rath road lad is elated over a "find" he recently made—an ancient map of New Jersey approximately six feet long, which shows many towns in this section of Pennsylvania.

The boy, Donald Biggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Biggs, discovered the map on a wooden roller, in the attic of a house in Edgely, which the Biggs family recently occupied. In lower Bucks County Dunks Ferry; Red Lion instead of Red Lion; China appears along the Delaware to the southwest of here, with Hartington a mile or two west of China; Attleboro appears where the borough of Langhorne is now located; Somerville is a mile or two east of Newtown; and in those days Dolington was spelled Dolinton. There is listed a hamlet called Buck (where Buck Hotel is situated); and Yardley in those days was Yard-leville.

The map was listed as being "Revised and improved by Robert E. Horner, 1853."

OUTLINE OBJECTIVES OF PROPOSED P. T. A.

Organization Meeting Is Scheduled for Tomorrow Evening Here

For the purpose of organizing a Parent-Teacher Association in connection with Bristol public school system, and electing officers for the same, a meeting is scheduled for tomorrow evening at eight o'clock. The place of meeting will be Wood street school building.

TO ELECT OFFICERS

Objectives of the proposed Parent-Teacher Association are listed as follows:

1. To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community.
2. To raise the standards of home life.
3. To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.
4. To bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child.
5. To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education.

Find Edwin S. Chandler Dead in Bed at Residence

A Bensalem township farmer, known to many in this area with whom he came in contact with on his weekly trips delivering eggs, apples and other farm products, was found dead in bed at his home Saturday morning.

The deceased is Edwin S. Chandler, 58, Bristol road, Bensalem township.

Mr. Chandler had returned from one of his routes Friday evening, and complained of a head-ache. He retired at 10 o'clock. At eight o'clock Saturday morning he was found dead in bed. Death is believed to have occurred at about two a. m.

Surviving him is his wife, Alberta Chandler, of Ogdensburg, N. Y.

Mr. Chandler had lived in Bensalem township for many years.

A service will be conducted at eight o'clock tomorrow evening at the funeral home of J. Maurice Tomlinson, Bristol Pike, Cornwells Heights, and friends may call after seven o'clock. The Rev. Herbert Lewing, Andalusia, will officiate. The body will be forwarded to DeKalb Junction, N. Y., for burial.

Will Assist Those Who Apply for Commissions

The local U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force recruiting station is now ready to advise and assist all veterans of World War II, who are interested in applying for commissions as second lieutenant in the U. S. Army. It was announced today by S/Sgt. Charles F. Kinsey.

The new program, set in motion by the Department of the Army on October 22, is designed to procure junior officers to fill the many vacancies now open due to the rapidly expanding Army.

S/Sgt. Kinsey said that "Any veteran between 19 and 32 years of age, in good physical condition, and with two years of college may apply for a commission. All successful applicants will be sent to school and upon successful completion they will be given two years of active duty as officers in the U. S. Army. Qualified young men are urged to go to the local recruiting station, Grand Theatre Building, for complete details. However, those young men who are currently going to college are reminded not to drop out, inasmuch as applicants will not be accepted if they are currently attending or due to attend a college or university at the time of expected entry on active duty."

Serves Truman Notice of Expected Repeal of T.-H. Law

Cincinnati — The American Federation of Labor served notice on President Truman today that it expects him to ask Congress for complete repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act. As the AFL opened its 67th Convention in Cincinnati, President William Green said:

"That was the issue in the recent campaign—not to amend, but to repeal the Taft-Hartley Act. We believe we are justified in expecting the President to recommend repeal in his opening address to Congress."

To Turn Spotlight on Alleged Unfair Dealer Practices

Washington — A Congressional hearing will turn the spotlight today on unfair trade practices by car dealers which cost American motorists nearly a half-billion dollars in the first seven months of this year.

The Congressional investigators are expected to show that during the first seven months of 1948, American automobile buyers lost more than 200 million dollars on "undervalued trade-ins" and another 250 million on "extras they did not want."

Bristol Bride Wears An Ice Blue Costume

Wearing an ice blue gown of satin and Spanish lace, in pinaflore style, Miss Mary Volponi, 18 Lincoln avenue, made her way to the altar of St. Ann's R. C. Church, yesterday at the hour of three, there to become the wife of Mr. Ottavio Caucci, son of Mr. Julio Caucci, 1114 Cherry street.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Volponi. Her ice blue gown was patterned with a train and had long sleeves. An ice blue lace pillow hat and veil were worn, also white slippers; and she carried a rounded bouquet of white rose-buds, with two lavender orchids at the center.

Her attendants were four in number: Miss Elizabeth Marsaglia, Lincoln avenue, as maid of honor, gowning in pink; Mrs. Alfred Volponi, Lincoln avenue, matron of honor, in peacock blue; the Misses Marie Marsaglia, Taylor street, and Emily Potenza, Lincoln avenue, in American beauty and dark green, respectively. The Misses Marsaglia, who are cousins of the bride, carried round bouquets of white roses, with a lavender orchid included in each; and the other two attendants carried yellow roses and lavender orchids. The gowns had bodices and long sleeves of velvet, illusion yokes, and off-shoulder effect. Frilled taffeta formed the skirts. The quartet wore gold slippers, and velvet half hats with plumes to match their individual gowns.

Attending Mr. Caucci as best man was Mr. Leonard Volponi, Lincoln avenue, brother of the bride, and ushers were Mr. Joseph DiPento, Brook street, and Mr. Eugene Ciambella, Jefferson avenue.

Members of the bridal party were served dinner at the Cozy Corner Restaurant, and the reception in the evening at the Volponi home.

The couple is spending a week at New York, N. Y. Travelling costume of the bride consisted of a two-piece black suit with gold trim, black coat and slippers, white gloves and pink feather hat. She wore the orchids from her bouquet. Mr. and Mrs. Caucci will reside at 18 Lincoln avenue.

RED STAR OVER CHINA

A far-reaching victory has been won by the Communists in China.

The fighting still going on will determine how much of China they will keep. The future will decide whether they can consolidate their victory and hold on to their gains.

But the best that Chiang can hope for is to retain control of what the Communist armies cannot seize without getting too far from their bases.

This conclusion seems implicit in the news from China. The Communists have all Manchuria and much of North China. Their victorious armies are engaged in a great battle with Chiang's forces for the capital city of Nanking.

Chiang's soldiers have deserted to the enemy by the thousands.

A Communist victory may as well be anticipated if not regarded as an accomplished fact. The question now is how much of China can be held and consolidated against further Red advances.

The outlook is not bright. Even in South China, where Communist armies cannot penetrate, there is great unrest among the populace. Few of the people can remember having had so little to eat, even in wartime. Rice merchants are hiding and hoarding their holdings. Desperate mobs are tearing down rice shops—as they did in 1928 before Chiang came into power. It would be hard to convince the people that the Communists could be worse than the present government.

If all China is not to go Communist within a few months or years, Chiang or his successor must set up a comparatively honest and efficient government for what is left of the country. Only then can American aid accomplish anything in China.

NEW ROLE FOR THE NAVY

This year's traditional "war games" of the Navy's Atlantic and Pacific fleets brings sharply into focus the switch in operational purpose of the fleet from defensive striking force to offensive amphibious arm.

Exercises on both coasts this year revolved around an amphibious assault. The one carried out several days ago by Marines at Argentina, Newfoundland, was the first "cold weather" amphibious lift ever attempted.

Though it is only now being generally realized, the hop, skip and jump across the Pacific and the landings in the Mediterranean, Normandy and elsewhere, were the basis of an altogether new concept of naval warfare.

Navy planners were quick to spot the value of it and set in motion the metamorphosis that today finds the Navy in an entirely new role.

This doesn't herald the end of carriers, cruisers and other smaller fighting ships, which have always symbolized the Navy. It is merely proof that the tactical roles of each type have been shifted. Broadly speaking, it signals the junking of defensive strategy and, by a rearrangement of functions, solidly establishing the Navy as an amphibious Sunday punch.

Young German Woman

And Croydonite Marry

CROYDON, Nov. 15.—The marriage of Miss Edith Zenker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zenker of Saxony, Germany, and Mr. Thomas France, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas France, of Croydon, was performed on Saturday at three o'clock in St. Thomas's R. C. rectory. The Rev. Joseph Rogers officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The two met while Mr. France was serving in the U. S. Army in Germany, and the bride arrived here a few weeks ago for the wedding.

Attending the couple were Mrs. Nora Seislove, Philadelphia; and Mr. Joseph France, Croydon, aunt and brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Seislove was gown in pale blue brocaded taffeta, it being cut with a tight bodice, sweetheart neckline, short sleeves and bouffant skirt. A peplum outlined the waistline. With this she wore matching taffeta mitts. Her headpiece was a crown of blue velvet and she wore a light blue face veil. Her bouquet was of pink chrysanthemums. White kid slippers completed her attire.

The bridal gown was of white satin, cut princess style with tight bodice buttoned in back, sweetheart neckline and long sleeves which tapered over the wrists. The skirt formed a long train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a crown of orange blossoms and seed pearls. She wore a necklace of pearls and white kid slippers. The bridal bouquet was of white chrysanthemums with an inserted pink rosebud corsage.

Dinner was served to 25 guests at 4:30 at the Keystone Hotel, Bristol. The pair left for a honeymoon to be spent in New York, N. Y. They will reside at the home of the bridegroom in Croydon upon their return.

Mr. France is employed by the Atlantic Refining Co., Philadelphia.

Mrs. France traveled in a two-piece tan suit with black accessories. She wore the pink rose corsage from her bridal bouquet.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

The Fourth Drive Looms

Washington, Nov. 15.

FROM Wall Street to the West Coast water front labor leaders are feeling tough again. There will be more strikes, more sidewalk pickets, more organizing propaganda, more maneuvering and footwork, as the unions prepare to pit employers in the fourth drive for new wage increases—whether prices stay up or go down. Of course, the election did it.

THIS not altogether pleasing prospect for industrial peace comes from neither Republican nor Democratic conservatives. Nor does it emanate from anti-Truman or anti-labor sources. On the contrary, it comes from a recognized authority on labor affairs, probably the best-informed man in the country on labor politics, with a wider and more intimate acquaintance among the labor bosses than any other—Mr. Victor Riesel, of the New York Evening Post. Similar views are reflected by others who work in the same vineyard. Exactly identical ideas are held by the more level-headed politicians in both parties. This being the case, it would seem timely to acquaint the people generally with what they may expect.

IN the first place, there seems no doubt that, while before election most union chiefs had no strike plans for 1949 and hoped their followers would not press them into a new wage fight, they are now getting set for action. For example, 1,000,000 rail workers are about to demand five days' work for six days' pay. A tieup of the Atlantic Coast water front, not unlike that on the West Coast, impends, with the union chiefs trying to keep the Communist squads from taking over. Between now and next summer about 10,000 union contracts terminate, including those in the great steel and aircraft plants.

Reside wage increases, a large number of these unions have many other demands ranging all the way from air conditioning in the factories and mills to maternity benefits. In brief, far from being a period of industrial peace, 1949 promises more industrial strife than any year since 1945. The big basic reason for this unpromising outlook, of course, is the labor bosses' belief that "the people ordered it" in the recent election; that organized labor elected Mr. Truman and he has a "mandate" from the voters to support labor's position. Already asserting the claim that Mr. Truman owes his success to organized labor's efforts in his behalf, the leaders of organized labor are going to present—and they believe—collect a very large bill for services rendered.

OF course, the election returns do not bear out these contentions. The figures do not show that the people "ordered" anything of the kind, or that there is any clear mandate from them on anything. It is true the labor unions were an important factor in the Truman victory, but so were the farmers in such states as Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota and California, and so were the various racial and religious groups to whom Mr. Truman especially appealed. Also, the 2,000,000 Federal jobholders contributed in votes about as much—perhaps more—than any other group. This mandate talk is nonsense. An approximate 5,000 majority in a total vote of 47,000,000 hardly can be called a mandate, and it is absurd for the labor bosses to make the sort of claims they now are.

NEVERTHELESS, with the exception of John L. Lewis and a few others, they were all on Mr. Truman's side, including the Reuthers, Murrys and Whitneys, who violently opposed his nomination and had publicly as well as privately spoken of him with great contempt. There is, however, enough in their claims to insure a sympathetic attitude upon the part of Mr. Truman toward a fourth wage-increase drive and make certain a strong fight on his part to redeem his pledge to repeal the Taft-Hartley Act. But the question is how far can the newly elected Mr. Truman be pushed by these labor bosses who already are planning (apparently with the cordial acquiescence of Chairman McGrath) to take over the Democratic party?

AMONG the numerous other pledges made by Mr. Truman during the campaign perhaps the most conspicuous and popular were to bring prices down and control inflation. A White House-supported fourth wage increase drive, such as is looming, would certainly tend to make redemption of these two promises very much more difficult, if not impossible. Certainly, increased wages is inevitably followed by increased prices and that is distinctly inflationary. It is absurd to put a ceiling on prices without putting a ceiling on wages. Everybody agrees about that. Yet, Mr. Truman is pledged to do the first and under more or less obligations not to do the second.

THE fact is this is only one case in which he has overpromised himself. Soon or late he is bound to realize that he can't go in different directions at the same time. Soon or late he will have to battle inflation and high prices as he promised the people generally or pay the rather ruinous bill of the labor bosses to whom he undoubtedly owes something. Thanksgiving

Lord God, we give Thee thanks this day,

Humbly, in our simple way,

For all the gracious gifts which Thou

Hast deigned so richly to endow —

For life — for every passing minute —

For this, Thy world, and all things in it!

We give Thee thanks, dear Lord, for these —

The green beneficence of trees,

The kindness of rain, the birth

Of springtime from a barren earth —

The earth that bears the bread we break

In gratitude for Thy sweet sake.

We thank Thee, Lord, for healing song,

For courage, wise and tall and strong;

For all the laughter and the tears

That mold the pattern of our years;

For truth and trust and constancy,

For faith that lets us lean on Thee!

We give Thee thanks for ears to hear,

For feet to tread Thy pathways here,

For hands to touch, and lips to sing

Thy name in every lovely thing —

For friendship with our fellow men—

But mostly for Thy love.

AMEN

GOODWILL GOES DOWN BEFORE THE HAMROCK ELEVEN

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15.—Lack of substitutes attributed to the defeat of the Goodwill Hose eleven yesterday afternoon as the hosemen bowed to the Philadelphia Shamrocks on the latter's field at 26th and Mifflin streets. Final score was Shamrocks, 23; Goodwill, 0.

The Goodwill team was missing 11 players before the game started. Most of them were out because of injuries, and after the game started with Joe Elmer and Claude Distler injured early. Several others were injured toward the finish, and the substitute problem became so acute that both Goodwill coaches, Joe Roe and Jesse Vanzant, donned uniforms in order to finish the game.

It was announced last night that the Goodwill team has postponed its schedule for the balance of the 1948 season.

Despite its handicap, the firemen made a good showing against the boys of Bill Morrow. The Shamrocks scored twice in the first period and again in the final period. They also had a field goal in the last quarter.

Two of the Shamrocks' six points were picked up fumbles which were run across the goal lines for scores. The teams were playing professional rules which permits the running of fumbled balls. In the last quarter, Dan O'Rourke ran 40 yards to score on a fumble. The first Shamrock touchdown was a beautiful 60-yard run by "Jim" McNeill on an off-tackle play. The field goal was kicked by Montague on the 30-yard line. The ball hit the cross-bar and bounced on the outside for the three points.

Goodwill threatened in the second quarter, getting as far as the 5-yard line on line plays, but a 5-yard penalty deflated the rally. In the final period, Luke Singer picked up a fumble and ran to the Shamrocks' 20. From there, Berne Stiles took a lateral from Joe Toe and passed to Jack Coyne on the nine-yard line. Two other passes thrown by Roe were missed, and would have meant touchdowns if caught.

deal for every child, Americanism, and community service. "When we look at this program and try to uphold these things, we cannot help but work for permanent peace," Mrs. Rothert commented.

Commander-elect Lynn Poyner, of Soby Post, was also presented to the group, he promising to the women's unit 100 per cent support as commander and also on the part of the post.

Ninth District Commander Herbert Walker was also heard. "Armistice day for 30 years has developed in the average person's mind almost any kind of observance that a group feels called upon to have," he said. Mr. Walker cited types of programs he had attended during the past week—memorials to those who have given their lives for their country; programs honoring outstanding citizens; dinners, etc. "Why not, on November 11th from now on, dedicate ourselves on that day to peace? Peace throughout the world is what we fought for in World Wars I and II. But we do not have peace after all the sacrifice. Peace throughout the world is what we fought for and what we ask for. Let us call Armistice Day from now on 'Peace Day'."

A moment of silence was observed in memory of those who gave their lives in any wars, taps then being sounded by Ernest Shade, of Penned.

Several past presidents of the Auxiliary were introduced, namely, Miss Mary Keating, Miss Rita Keating, Mrs. Ernest Robinson, Mrs.

Harry Heller, Mrs. Harry Friedrich, and Mrs. James Tracy.

As vocal duets, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Staudenmeyer sang "Desert Song," and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life."

The casino of the country club was redolent with suitable decorations. Bars of musical notes were attached to the dinner-cloths, and miniature card-board pianos were scattered on the tables. Applause was by means of vari-colored "musical blocks." Nut cups and a variety of favors were at each place. Turkey was the piece de resistance.

A floral piece, of chrysanthemums in variety of hues, was the centerpiece at the guests' table, and this was yesterday placed on the grave of Mrs. Anna Soby, mother of the late Jesse W. Soby, for whom the local post is named.

Announcements by the toastmaster included the sour kroust supper on December 5th at the club home, four to eight p. m.; and the first of a series of "dollar nights" to take place soon for post members only.

groom, as maid of honor; and the following bridesmaids: Mrs. Vito Lavrigata, New Brook street, Mrs. Leonard Bucca, Trenton, N. J.; and Miss Jacqueline Stallone, Beaver street. The maid of honor was attired in rose pink; and the other three attendants in aqua, all gowns being satin. "Pick-ups" at the hemline revealed triple rows of lace, sleeves were short, and detachable sleeves were worn. Satin bonnets, matching their gowns, were sweetheart type, these being lace trimmed. The maid of honor carried white roses with chrysanthemums to blend with her costume; and the other three carried pink roses with contrasting 'mums. They wore double strands of pearls about their necks, and slippers were silver.

Chosen as best man was Mr. Vito Lavrigata, New Brook street, brother of the bride-groom; ushers being Mr. Alfred Riccio, Dorrance street, and Mr. Anthony Mosco, Washington street.

The evening reception was held in Mutual Aid hall.

As a travelling costume Mrs. Lavrigata wore a royal blue suit with beaded pockets and buttons, gray accessories, and an orchid corsage. The couple will reside at 727 Pond street.

Costume of Mrs. Zula, mother of the bride, consisted of a black dress with trim of white sequins at the neck and on the peplum, and black accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a black dress with a trim of lace and black accessories. Both wore white rose-bud corsages.

The bride, a graduate of Modesto high school, California, presented her attendants with rhinestone necklaces and bracelets. Mr. Lavrigata, who served four years in the U. S. Navy, presented his attendants with initialed cigarette lighters.

NOW—for 30 DAYS ONLY PRACTICALLY EVERYONE CAN JOIN BLUE CROSS!

Anyone under 66 in good health can now join as a Non-Group Member

Blue Cross is the community service plan that pays hospital bills for you and for your family.

Now, Blue Cross is opening its doors to practically everyone who wants to join.

If you work where a Blue Cross group does not now exist, you can join. Or if you are self-employed, retired, or not working, you can join. Anyone under 66 in good health can join. But you must apply before December 15.

Remember, the chances are 1 in 10 that you will go to the hospital within the next 12 months. If there are five in your family, the odds are 1 in 2 that you will use your Blue Cross hospitalization.

WHAT YOU GET

Blue Cross gives you (for 21 to 30 days a year, depending on how long you have been a member) a semi-private room at the member hospital of your choice . . . meals and special dietary service . . . general nursing service . . . drugs and medications in general use, including penicillin . . . operating room . . . oxygen . . . and many other benefits. These services cost you not one penny. Blue Cross has paid a hospital bill of as much as $2,700 for an individual member!

WHAT IT COSTS

Protection for yourself alone costs less than four cents a day; for yourself and your entire family, less than ten cents a day. Less than the cost of a street-car ride. Yet your membership may save you thousands of dollars in hospital bills!

30 DAYS ONLY!

This opportunity for nearly everyone to join Blue Cross is part of the tenth anniversary celebration of the non-profit Blue Cross Plan. In these ten years, local membership has grown from zero to 1,300,000—practical proof of the enormous value of the plan.

Simply fill in the coupon and mail today for complete information. Blue Cross employs no agents; pays no commissions. No one will call on you. Joining Blue Cross is entirely up to you.

THE FOLLOWING LETTER HAS BEEN MAILED TO EMPLOYEES OF THE PATERSON PARCHMENT PAPER COMPANY WHO ARE NOW ON STRIKE:

Bristol, Penna., Nov. 13, 1948

TO EMPLOYEES OF THE PATERSON

PARCHMENT PAPER COMPANY:

You will find enclosed herewith a copy of preliminary order dated November 12, 1948, filed by the Honorable Hiram H. Keller in the equity proceedings in Bucks County in re Paterson Parchment Paper Company vs. International Brotherhood of Paper Makers and International Brotherhood of Paper Makers Local Number 500 et al. It is sincerely hoped that this injunction will give protection to all employees who wish to return to work.

In view of this protection granted you by law, we again invite all of our employees to return to their jobs on Wednesday, November 17, 1948, on their regular shifts. In the event that any of our employees should not return to work at their regular time, we shall find it necessary to fill the jobs of such employees with permanent replacements.

Open jobs will be posted for bid for a period of forty-eight (48) hours at the expiration of which time, vacancies will be permanently filled by the successful applicant. Any employees who have returned to work when the bids are posted will be eligible to apply. Any vacancies that cannot be filled in this way, will be filled by eligible replacements from other sources.

We believe that many of our employees want to return to work. We cannot estimate the financial and other losses that the employees and the Company have suffered as a result of the enforced strike. All of the offers made by the Company prior to the strike still stand.

We sincerely hope that you will return to work at your regular time on Wednesday, November 17, 1948.

Medical Society Celebrates 100 Years of Its Growth

remarks were followed by greetings from Dr. Walter Hendricks, of Perkasie, secretary-treasurer of the society, and by Dr. Raymond Tice, of Quakertown, who thanked the members of the ladies auxiliary who helped make the affair such an outstanding success.

Dr. Carrell, the dean of the medical profession in Bucks county, was given a rousing ovation as he was introduced.

The distinguished physician said "I suppose I am here tonight because of my advanced age," but there was not an individual present who did not realize that it was the fame of the great medical leader that was the reason for his presence.

"This is the most remarkable meeting of the medical society that I have ever attended," he said. "This marks my 50th anniversary as a member of the Bucks County Medical Society. I formerly belonged to the Montgomery society."

Dr. Carrell will go down in medical history in the United States as the originator of the plan of establishing the well known "R. N." after the names of registered nurses. It was this idea that Dr. Carrell introduced into the House of Delegates many years ago.

The honored guest also appealed to the physicians present to insist on writing "M. D." after their names and eliminating the "Dr." in front of their names.

"The physician who is proud of his profession should always write 'M. D.' after his name," Dr. Carrell declared. For a number of years, Dr. Carrell carried on a campaign throughout the United States to have physicians subscribe to this practice.

Dr. Carrell, who is a genealogist of note, an author of historic books and medical papers, also served as editor of the Bucks County Medical Monthly for 20 years.

He paid a tribute to Dr. Allen H. Moore, of Doylestown, the present author of the Monthly, for the outstanding job he is doing.

"In my opinion, Dr. Moore, as editor of our Monthly, is doing the best job of any county in Pennsylvania," Dr. Carrell declared.

The guest of honor paid tribute to the outstanding assistance that has always been given the Medical Monthly by George S. Hotchkiss, editor of the "Daily Intelligencer," Charles M. Meredith, Jr., of Quakertown, publisher of the Quakertown Free Press; and to a number of other members of the newspaper profession with whom he has been personally acquainted for years. He referred to many of his old associates in the medical profession as "his boys," and named them. He also stated that the Bucks County Medical Society was actually organized in 1822 by the first president, Dr. Phineas Jenks, but that the society petered out and was then reorganized.

The official greetings of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania were extended by Major General Daniel B. Strickler, of Harrisburg, Lieutenant Governor of the State, who brought the best wishes of Governor James Duff. Mrs. Strickler was also a guest.

Dr. Gilson Colby Engel, of Philadelphia, president of the Pennsylvania Medical Society, said "We are proud of the Bucks County Medical Society as a unit of the State society."

Dr. Elmer Hess, of Erie, immediately past president of the State Society; Dr. Walter F. Donaldson, of Pittsburgh, secretary-treasurer of the State Society, were introduced.

Dr. John M. Meredith, of Richmond, Va., a native of Bucks county, and now one of the outstanding neurological surgeons of the South, was introduced. Dr. Meredith, a brother of the Quakertown publishers, represents the 16th generation of the Meredith family to be a member of the medical profession, dating back to the Revolutionary War period.

Dr. Francis F. Brozell, of Philadelphia, a native of Doylestown, and now chairman of the advisory Council of the Medical Service Committee of the State Medical Society, extended personal greetings. Dr. Brozell was born in Doylestown 66 years ago, and at one time practiced in Trumbauersville. He brought the official greetings of the American Medical Association to the Bucks county group and to Dr. Carrell.

Others who were presented by Emcee Kenny included Dr. William J. Goetz, Reading, president of the Bucks County M. S.; Dr. William A. Limberger, West Chester, president of the Chester County M. S.; Dr. John H. Hennemuth, Emmaus, president of the Lehigh County M. S.; Dr. Stephen J. Deichelman, Ambler, president of the Montgomery M. S.; Dr. Theodore R. Pettor, Philadelphia, president of the Philadelphia M. S.

Leaders of Pennsylvania's outstanding medical colleges and other institutions of learning affiliated with medicine, who were in attendance and introduced, included: Dr. John McK. Mitchell, Dean of the Medical School, University of Pennsylvania; Dr. William Harvey Perkins, Dean of Jefferson Medical College; Dr. Charles L. Brown, Dean of Hahnemann Medical College; Dr. W. S. McElroy, Dean of the Medical School of the University of Pittsburgh; Dr. William N. Parkinson, Dean of the Medical School, Temple University.

Others included Dr. John J. Sweeney, Upper Darby, Second District Councilor; Dr. Edgar S. Buyers, Norristown, a vice-president of the State Medical Society; Dr. Andrew Godfrey, Doylestown, a veteran of 50 years in the practice of medicine, honored by the State Medical Society; Mrs. Paul C. Craig, Reading, president of the Woman's Auxiliary of the State Medical Society; Mrs. Elmer Bauch, Reading, District Councilor of the State Society; Mrs. Paul Atkinson, Norristown, president of the Montgomery County Auxiliary; Mrs. John F. McFadden, Andalusia, president of the Bucks County Woman's Auxiliary.

The dental profession was represented by Dr. G. Edward Swarthoff, of Souderton, president of the Bucks-Montgomery Dental Society; Dr. Ivor Griffith, president of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, was a guest, as was Norman H. Skull, of Bristol, representing the Bucks County Pharmaceutical Association.

Newspaper editors mentioned included George S. Hotchkiss, "Daily Intelligencer," Doylestown; Charles M. Meredith, Quakertown Free Press; John Sprekel, Perkasie News-Herald; Serrill D. Delfoson, Bristol Courier; and A. Russell Thomas, of the "Daily Intelligencer."

Joseph B. Turner, Jr., and Dorothy Stowell, both of Quakertown. Kolman Konya, Lons, N. J., and Mary Surman, Quakertown, R. D. 3.

The reception committee included Mrs. Clyde R. Flory, Sellersville; Mrs. Harvey P. Feigley, Sr., Quakertown; Mrs. Stanley Meyer, Quakertown; Mrs. William Smith, Richlandtown; Mrs. Allen H. Moore, Doylestown.

The decoration committee included Mrs. Redding H. Rufe, Chalfont; Mrs. Bradford Green, Buckingham; Mrs. John A. Prickett, Warrington; Mrs. William I. Westcott, Doylestown.

Bristol physicians attending were Dr. Mary Lehman, Dr. Frank Lehman, Dr. George T. Fox, Dr. H. Doyle Webb, Dr. H. Richard Giordano, Dr. Vincent E. Romano, Dr. P. M. Vassaluzzo. Several of the physicians were accompanied by members of their families.

Miss Eleanor Petrick and Mr. David A. Cantwell Wed

Miss Eleanor D. Petrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Petrick, Sr., 1505 Wilson avenue, became the bride of Mr. David A. Cantwell, Trenton, N. J., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. David A. Cantwell, Saturday at three o'clock. The double ring ceremony was performed at St. Marks R. C. Church, with the Rev. Paul Baird officiating.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Carl Wines, Croydon, sang "Ave Marie" and "I Love You Truly". Another singer, Mr. Percy G. Ford, Nelson Court, sang, "Panis Angelicus", "Decease" and "Oh Promise Me". They were accompanied by Miss Katherine Keating, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a white chiffon velvet gown, buttoned down the front, large circular train, long sleeves tapering to a point and trimmed with seed pearls; Peter Pan collar edged with seed pearls. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls and varied sizes of heads. She carried a bouquet of large white chrysanthemums with baby mums scattered throughout.

The maid of honor, Miss Sarah Ann O'Boyle, Wilson avenue, wore a gown of silvery lavender taffeta, with a Peter Pan collar, buttoned down the front, full skirt, and mitts matching. She carried a bouquet of large yellow chrysanthemums and baby mums; and wore a lavender plume in her hair.

The bride's mother chose a dress of black crepe, trimmed with satin, over this she wore a full length black coat with Persian Lamb collar and also used as trim down the front. She wore black accessories and a corsage of yellow mums.

The bride presented her maid of honor with a marcasite bracelet. The bridegroom gave his best man a marcasite initialed pin.

The bride is a graduate of Bristol high school; Rider College and the School of Industrial Arts, Trenton, N. J. Mr. Cantwell is a graduate of Trenton Catholic high school. He served in the U. S. Army three years overseas.

The bride made her three piece travelling costume which consisted of a suit of rust brown flannel, and a reversible cape—one side being rust brown, the other forest green. Accessories consisted of forest green feather trimmed hat; green doekin gloves, brown alligator bag and slippers.

A dinner reception was held, following the ceremony, at Becker Farms Inn, Bensalem township. Guests, numbering 80, attended from North Carolina, Connecticut, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

The couple are motoring through some of the southern states.

Today's Quiet Moment

By the Rev. Charles Weller
Pastor
Bristol Methodist Church

As we begin this another week, our Father, help us to be very conscious of the swift passing days, conscious of the rich opportunity they offer for Christian living and serving. Forgive our sins of omission in the past, the good deeds which we have allowed to go undone, the kindly words of Christian comradeship and encouragement which we have failed to speak. Help us to make this a week of Christian service that will brighten the lives of others and bring deep satisfactions to ourselves. We pray in the name of thy Son, Amen.

Milnor and Mrs. Minnie Hughes. Refreshments were served.

Circle No. 11, of Bristol Presbyterian Church, will meet at the home of Mrs. F. R. Davies, Maple Beach, Monday evening at eight.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Martin, Crum Lynne, were Tuesday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hughes, McKinley street. In the evening Sgt. and Mrs. Chetwood Van Aken, Bristol Terrace 1, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Van Aken, Mr. Robert Van Aken, Mrs. Frank Lynn and Miss Genevieve Kwochka, Bristol, joined the others for home movies in color, of Mr. and Mrs. Hughes wedding. These pictures were shown by Mr. and Mrs. Martin.

On Thursday evening a theatre party, including members of the Friendly Ladies Club, enjoyed the stage show "For Heaven Sake Mother", in Philadelphia. Those attending were: Mrs. Albert Reiff, Mrs. Edward Thomas, Mrs. Alfred Lewis, Mrs. George Chickenger, Mrs. S. Heinsius, Mrs. Devon Smith, Mrs. Daniel Dugan, and Mrs. Mahlon.

The bride is a graduate of Bristol high school; Rider College and the School of Industrial Arts, Trenton, N. J. Mr. Cantwell is a graduate of Trenton Catholic high school. He served in the U. S. Army three years overseas.

BRISTOL HIGH AND BENSLEM TIE; BOTH TEAMS KEEP RECORDS CLEAN AS RESULT OF THE STALEMATE HERE

With both scores coming in the final period, Bristol High and Bensalem Township High battled to a 6-6 stalemate Saturday afternoon on the local gridiron. A driving rain hindered the play of both teams during the first half but with the skies clearing up in the second half, the offensive power of both teams managed to score the touchdowns.

All records were kept intact as the result of the final tabulations of the contest. Bensalem kept its 1948 record clean with seven victories and two ties, while Bristol maintained its slate of not having been beaten by a Bensalem team since the opening of football relations. Even the first downs in the game were deadlocked, with each team having 10.

The Bensalem team came back strong to even the contest after "Sammy" Petrizzi had scored the Bristol touchdown. The Warriors made a drive of 61 yards to make the TD. Immediately following the score, Bensalem, making use of its aerial attack, climaxed a 50-yard march with a six-pointer. Both tries at the extra point, which would have meant victory for either team, were failures.

"Bill" Moll attempted the Bristol conversion try and his boot was low of the uprights. "Eddie" Oliver's drop-kick attempt for Bensalem was blocked.

Outstanding in the game was the fine blocking given to Oliver in the Owls' passing attack. Oliver was given plenty of time to get off his throws and "spot" his receivers. Pre-game calculations were that the Bristol line would outcharge the Bensalem line and not give Oliver time to pick out the ball snatches. But the Bensalem quarterback seemed to have enough time to tie his shoe-laces before throwing the ball. On one occasion, Oliver fumbled a pass from center, grabbed for the ball on the ground, and then picked it up to punt it out of danger ground.

"Jim" Sottile, who was on the end as an offensive player, and in the backfield on defense, played a fine game for the Bristol team. Sottile proved Coach McClister's strategy in placing him as a defensive half-back by intercepting three of the Bensalem passes. In punting, Sottile had a slight edge on Oliver.

Although it scored but one touchdown, Bensalem passed up two others. One of these was an actual touchdown which was annulled because of a holding penalty, while on the other occasion, the Owls got as far as the three-yard line with four downs to go but on the second try, a Bensalem back fumbled, and Bud Pearson recovered for the Warriors.

In the early stages of the game before the rain reached its height, both teams had threatening touchdowns thwarted. Bensalem got as far as the Bristol 12-yard line and the local team reached Bensalem's 18 before losing the ball.

A combination of passes and line plays led to the initial score of the game. Standing on his ten-yard line, Sottile booted the leather to Cantwell on the Bensalem 15. In an attempt to get a flying start, Cantwell slipped but touched the ball and Bristol recovered on the visitors' 45. Petrizzi was given a big hole between tackle and guard and he cracked it for five yards but a holding penalty set the Warriors back to their 39. Marty Braam sailed a pass to Sottile which was good for 16 yards. Braam followed this with an aerial to Frank Rich who caught the ball on the Bensalem 30 for another first down. Two passes failed and on the third one Rich made a fine catch for a 9-yard gain. Moll was rushed into the game and on fourth down he banged the line for a first down on the 19.

The Bristol line was at its best now and gave the driving "Sammy" Petrizzi enough space to slip through for the third consecutive first down, the ball resting on the Bensalem seven. Petrizzi went through the line again and stepped off three yards, being stopped by Smith. Petrizzi carried the ball for the third straight time and skipped around his right end for a touchdown.

After the six-pointer there remained six minutes in the game and Bensalem began to work fast. Monte kicked off to Cantwell who caught the ball on his ten and ran to the 30 but a clipping penalty set the Owls back to their 29. Oliver whipped a pass to Brady for 10 yards and a first down. Another pass was incomplete but Oliver crossed the Bristol team and dashed through the line for 9 yards. Oliver on a quarterback sneak made a first down on his 43. On another fake Oliver hit the line for five yards. An aerial was grounded by Sottile. Going into the ozone again, Oliver passed to Cantwell for a first down on Bristol's 45.

Standing at mid-field, Oliver "caved" a long pass to the Bristol 12-yard line. Michaels, the intended receiver, reached out for the ball but Petrizzi was faster and snatched it but before he could clutch it tightly, Frank Cantwell leaned over and grabbed the pigskin, and went 12 yards for the touchdown, tying the score. It was the second time during the tilt that the lanky Cantwell had caught a pass after a Bristol play seemed to have intercepted.

Bensalem failed to capitalize on a "break" after deadlocking the score. On the kickoff, Braam lateraled and the ball was fumbled, Brady recovering for the Cornwells team. Brady, on the first play, carried the ball to the Bristol 20 but here the attack was halted and three passes were knocked down.

The Owls made the first scoring threat in the first quarter. It inaugurated its drive on its 28-yard line after a Sottile punt had been run back six yards by Cantwell. A Bristol off-sides penalty and an end run by George Ashton made a first down on Bristol's 46. Truchart failed to gain at tackle and after two plays gained eight yards, Oliver shot a pass to Cantwell for a first down on Bristol's 31. Brady gained 2 yards and Cantwell added two more through the line but on third down, Oliver again passed. Sottile nabbed the ball but Cantwell reached over and picked it out of his arms for a completed pass on the 12. Gleason nailed Oliver for a loss and Cantwell was also thrown for a loss to break up the attack.

Bristol got as far as the 18 in the second quarter. "Whitey" Welker intercepted a pass on the 25 and ran to his 45 before being spilled. But Bristol did not gain and kicked. The wet pigskin rolled to the Bensalem 35. On the first play, the Owls fumbled and Bristol recovered. Moll hit the line for five yards and then lugged the ball for a first down on the 21. Petrizzi added three more yards but the offensive power died down.

A holding penalty was costly to Bensalem in the third session. Bensalem had registered a first down on the Bristol 46 when Sottile intercepted and ran to mid-field. On the third down, Cantwell intercepted a Bristol pass and lateraled to Ashton who was dumped on the Bristol 45. A long pass, Oliver to Ashton, was completed to the three-yard line. The entire pass was good for 57 yards. Brady hit the line without success. Bensalem fumbled and Pearson fell on it on the 4-yard line. Sottile then kicked to Cantwell on the 21. On the third down, Oliver rifled the ball to Cantwell for a Bensalem touchdown but a Bensalem lineman was detected holding and the play nullified. Sottile broke up the attack by intercepting a pass.

Both Bristol and Bensalem will remain idle until Thanksgiving Day when the Warriors meet Morrisville on the local field and Bensalem goes to Langhorne to play the Redskins.

MORRISVILLE WINS OVER LANGHORNE

LANGHORNE, Nov. 15 — Morrisville High possessed plenty of punch here Saturday afternoon as it rolled up a 34-6 triumph over Langhorne High on Playwicky field.

Bob Felver scored two of the Bulldogs' five touchdowns, at least one in every quarter. He also added one of the extra points. One of Felver's TD was an 82-yard scamper following the second half kickoff.

"Army" Fizzano scored the Langhorne touchdown in the third period running 40 yards after Morris Stradling had recovered a Morrisville fumble.

Morrisville played without the services of Charlie Johnson and Jim Walsh, who will also be lost for the Bristol-Morrisville contest.

Members of the official board, Neshaminy Methodist Church, will meet this evening at the home of Christian V. Tomlinson, Langhorne. A visit was paid yesterday by Mrs. Theresa Korim and William Korim to their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shaffer, at Phoenixville.

ST. ANN'S DEFEATS LANGHORNE ACES BY SCORE OF 12-6

LANGHORNE, Nov. 15 — With both teams having a total of seven first downs, St. Ann's A. A. nosed out the Langhorne-Middletown Aces, 12-6, yesterday afternoon on Playwicky field.

The largest crowd of the season was on hand to witness the Bristol team down the Aces and watch the Robert W. Bracken Post, No. 352, American Legion Cadets drill and parade at half-time.

The St. Ann's team avenged the defeat given them last season by scoring in the first and third periods but were swept off their feet by a strong comeback by Langhorne in the final minutes of the game. Even as the game was drawing to a close, Langhorne had a chance for a finale which would have either tied or won the game for them. That happened when Dale Miller recovered a St. Ann's fumble on the 25 yard line.

Incidentally, it was a fumble which led to the St. Ann's second and what proved to be the winning touchdown. The hopple took place midway in the third quarter. Wayne Schneider booted the ball for the "Saints" and a Langhorne back fumbled on the 11 yard line where St. Ann's recovered. "Bill" Marion made nine yards through the line and on the next play crashed through the middle for the six-pointer.

St. Ann's first TD was manufactured in the first canto and was the climax of a 54-yard drive down the field. Lukens kicked the ball to the St. Ann's 46 from near his goal line. Stradling tried a pass without success and on two plays, Marion lugged the ball to the 29-yard line and a first down. Feole went off tackle for a yard. Stradling failed at passing and Marion was stopped without a gain. On the fourth down, Stradling passed to "Reds" Schreiner for a first down on the 10. Feole found a hole at guard for four yards and Schreiner tapped center for three more yards. From the three-yard line, "Jim" McAllister bullied his way over the goal-line for a score. A pass try for the conversion point failed while Sak's kick after the winning touchdown also missed.

A 39-yard pass was completed for Langhorne's touchdown as the game was drawing to a close. The march started following Schneider's kick to the 33-yard line. Dale Miller, former Millersville College back, passed for a first down and McGovern made another first down with an end run. A fifteen yard penalty against St. Ann's gave the Aces their third first down in succession.

After a line play failed to gain, Miller heaved a pass to K. Caldwell which was good for 30 yards and a touchdown to shave the St. Ann's lead to 12-6.

Miller's fumble recovery followed the kickoff and exchange of punts. Gullatto got Miller for a loss on the first play and Dale came back to gain back the lost three yards on the following play. But an attempted pass was intercepted by "Jim" Rue as the game ended.

St. Ann's lost a scoring opportunity early in the tilt when "Teddy" Sak recovered a Langhorne fumble on the latter's 29 yard line. Two line plays and with Stan Lelinski carrying the ball on a reverse, St. Ann's got as far as the five-yard line. But after Marion failed to gain, Tommy Salvador broke through and got Howard Keys for a 9 yard loss on an attempted end-about play.

Langhorne made a threat in the second period when after a pass interception, Lukens heaved an aerial to Bob Reed for a first down on the St. Ann's 30 but another pass, Lukens to Spadacino, was completed but fell short of a first down.

St. Ann's
Ends: Keys, Lelinski, Mangiaracina, Benny.

British Empire Joyous Over Birth of Prince

By Charles E. Smith
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
LONDON, Nov. 15—Great Britain and the entire empire are enthusiastically celebrating today the birth of a prince who some day is scheduled to wear the British crown.

The royal infant, Princess Elizabeth's first child, was born to the heiress presumptive to the throne at Buckingham Palace last night at 9:14 p. m. (4:14 p. m. E. S. T.).

Official celebration of the birth was put off until today because of the lateness of the hour, but this did not deter vast crowds of cheering Londoners from thronging around the palace until long after midnight.

They refused to go home until told repeatedly that Princess Elizabeth needed quiet and rest, and they began gathering again shortly after dawn this morning.

Traditional heralding of the birth will take place at 1 p. m. (8:00 a. m. E. S. T.), when the guns of the historic Tower of London will boom out in a 41-gun royal salute.

It will be echoed by the guns of the Royal Navy both in port and all ships at sea.

Official notification of the birth was sent last night to the commanders of all His Majesty's ships as well as to all Governors-General "of the British Dominions overseas."

Other royal salutes will be fired throughout the United Kingdom and the entire Commonwealth.

Church bells will begin their joyous pealing even earlier.

The bells of Westminster Abbey, and other churches and cathedrals across Britain, will ring out at 10:30 a. m. (5:30 a. m. E. S. T.).

Almost every London newspaper has splashed across its front page the headlines, "It's A Boy."

Word of the birth was sent immediately to the anxious young father, Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh. He rushed immediately to the 22-year-old wife's bedside and whispered his delight and affection while she had not yet completely recovered from the "twilight sleep" anaesthetic given her in the final stages.

The news was sent at the same time to the new grandparents, King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, and to Queen Mother Mary.

ANDALUSIA

Following treatment in Nazareth Hospital, Philadelphia, Mrs. Chapman is now at home. Bucks County Rescue Squad ambulance was used to transport Mrs. Chapman.
